Top reformed theologians

Wikimedia Commons has media related to Calvinist and Reformed theologians from the United States. A category listing pages on American theologians who are/were members of any of the various (Christian) Reformed denominations, such as the Evangelical and Reformed Church, the Reformed Church in America, etc., as well as other traditionally Reformed movements, such as Calvinists and Presbyterians. The pages should, if possible, be placed in an appropriate subcategory instead of this category directly. The following 156 pages are in this category, out of 156 total. This list may not reflect recent changes (learn more).

We serve the Christian and secular community as a resource for cult education, counseling, and non-coercive intervention. We accomplish these tasks through our church presentations, our magazine, The Watchman Expositor, personal counseling, this website, and other activities. Independent / Baptist Links ►All By Grace This site is dedicated to Glorifying our God and Savior Jesus Christ through the true Biblical Gospel that was rediscovered and confirmed during the Protestant Reformation. Preachers such as Brother Jim Gunn, Brother Dean Olive, and Brother Jim Gohl are found here. Sectarian (Baptist) ►Alpha and Omega Ministries James R. Ruff has prominence here. You will find this site offering apologetic and theological material, as well as a number of articles by White himself. Sectarian (Baptist, Phoenix Reformed Baptist Church) ►Chapel Library and Mount Zion Chapel Library has a sermon and tract ministry that houses many good things concerning puritan reprints. Sectarian (Baptist - Mt. Zion Bible Church) ►Christian Truth This is the site of Bill Webster. He is an author with Banner of Truth and have written several books on issues related to Roman Catholicism from a reformed perspective on specific issues related to Church history and the gospel. His books and web page offer a biblical and historical defense of the reformation distinctives. Sectarian (Baptist - Grace Bible Church) ►Farese.Com Johnny Farese's "reformed" Baptist Church Listing can be found here. John Farese is 44 years old and one of the oldest persons to reach that age after being diagnosed from birth with Spinal Muscular Atrophy. His testimony can be found here as well. He is a member of Emmanuel Baptist Church. Sectarian (Baptist - Emmanuel Baptist Church) ►Desiring God Ministries This site is where Bethlehem Baptist Church and John Piper's ministry reside on the web. Search his sermons and a host of other very well done articles. Sectarian (Baptist - Bethlehem Baptist Church) ►Grace and Truth This England based site upholds the Doctrines of Grace, and the theology of it's contributors is solely from a reforming perspective. It upholds the God breathed inspiration and inerrancy of the Scriptures, and identifies with the Reformation in seeking to contend for the faith once delivered unto the saints. Sectarian / Ecumenical (Crich Baptist Church) ►Hall of Church History The hall is one of the best church historical sites with a variety of links to other sites and the same topics and historical eras. This is Phil Johnson's site who attends Grace Community Church with John MacArthur. Sectarian (Baptist) ►Lux Scriptura A Southern Baptist Website. On this site you can find John Quincy Adam's book "Baptists, the Only Through Reformers" (though the thesis is quite wrong) as well as information on Baptist History. Sectarian (Baptist) ►OMarks A site dedicated to helping Christians understand the importance of the local church (Baptist view). Mark Dever is the Author and Speaker in the foreword here, who is pastor of Capital Hill Baptist Church. Sectarian (Baptist) ►Redeeming Grace Ministries RGM centers upon the public speaking and writing ministry of its founder and pastoral leader, Dr. Stanford E. Murrell. RGM is a non profit corporation in association with Sovereign Grace Baptist Church. The doctrines of grace are found in abundance here, as well as some good historical writings of the Reformers and Puritans. Sectarian (Baptist) ►Providence Baptist Ministries Site for R.L. Dabney, Edward Payson, A.W. Pink and John Gill. You would think they have everything from their men listed here. (Almost) Sectarian (Baptist) ►Reformed Reader The Reformed Reader is a website dedicated and committed to the historic Baptist faith. It is the purpose of their website to introduce to those who are new to the Baptist faith their rich cultural heritage of Baptist doctrine, theology and history. To others, The Reformed Reader will hopefully add to the already rich Baptist heritage and will aid all in receiving a more thorough view of the historic Baptist faith. Sectarian (Baptist) ►Trinity Baptist Church of Montville, NJ Home of Pastor Albert N. Martin and the Trinity Book Service. Sectarian (Baptist) ►Spurgeon Archives This is Phil Johnson's site which is one of the largest Spurgeon archives on the Internet. ►Spurgeon Gems By God's Grace, this site offers over 2,250 Spurgeon single sermons in modern English on the site in pdf format—easily read and/or downloaded. The William Tyndale Home Page: Fire for the Ploughman A well-made website featuring a team of actors portraying William Tyndale and the story of the English Bible. They also have some pictures here and historical essays on the transmission on Tyndale's work. ►Reformation Ink One of the best listing sites for Reformed information and articles. It houses a huge number of archived articles on almost every major theologians and preacher that is significant. There is even some hard to find information on the second generation reformers. ►Plymouth Rock Foundation Interesting site dedication to the Pilgrims. ►Reformation of the Arts, Music, and the Christian Worldview. Lots to read at this site. ►Reformed Christian Pages Some good Links. Lord's Day observance Society. Trinitarian Bible Society and more. ►Reformed Fellowship, Inc. The Outlook is owned and published by Reformed Fellowship, Inc., a religious and strictly non-profit organization composed of a group of Christian believers who hold to the Biblical Reformed faith. Its purpose is to advocate and propagate this faith, to nurture those who seek to live in obedience to it, to give sharpened expression to it, to stimulate the doctrinal sensitivities of those who profess it, to promote the spiritual welfare and purity of the Reformed churches and to encourage Christian action. ►Pilgrims Between Two Ages The pilgrim church presently exists with her Head in heaven, a reality belonging to the age to come. But she also sojourns in this world, this age. And while living in this age of sin and death, she shares in the sufferings of Christ, but is also waiting for the blessed hope of her Head's appearing. This Website exists to promote historic Reformed doctrines through the writings of pilgrims throughout the ages. ►The Highway Website Articles concerning creation, the resurrection, the existence of God, the atonement, predestination, roman Catholicism and more. ►The Strait Gate Reformed sermons, literature and Real Audio debates can be found here. ►All in One Christian Index: Cross Daily This is the website of Cross Daily where you can find all sorts of links (both good and bad). Be discerning! ►Center for Reformed Theology and Apologetics CRTA used to be an excellent website loaded with articles on theology, history, and apologetics (Presuppositional). They still have some documents that are great, but they also have some articles written by men of the Federal Vision persuasion - be aware! ►Crosswalk Lots of good online Bible study material, even the 1599 Geneva Notes - however, also lots of junk - Be discerning! ►Historical Prints Historical Reproductions, offers Original and Reproduced Prints, Exquisitely Framed Original Bible Leaves and Christian Art that has been uncovered and preserved. Warning: This site also contains "images of Christ" forbidden in the second commandment. Please be wise in what you browse and buy. ►Renewing Your Mind: RC Sproul and the Interactive Service of Ligomer Ministries ►Soli Deo Gloria Ministries The mission of Soli Deo Gloria is to provide "instruction in righteousness" to the Church through the reprinting of classic Christian literature. It is currently owned by Reformation Heritage Books. Seminaries and Colleges: ►Whitefield Theological Seminary WTS was developed during a six year period of research in the field of higher education. During the research, various academic and practical programs were evaluated. The result was the birth of Whitefield Theological Seminary in 1980. It offers graduate degrees in theological studies, as well as postgraduate degrees such as Ph.D and Th.D. The seminary is committed to the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms (1647). Graduates include Dr. RC Sproul, Dr. RC Sproul, Jr., Dr. Greg Bahnsen, Dr. Nigel Lee, Dr. Kenneth Gentry and Dr. George Grant. Soon to be released is Whitefield Media. ►Reformed Theological Seminary In less than thirty years RTS became one of the ten largest seminaries in the United States with an enrollment of approximately 1900 on three campuses, or approximately two per cent of the total enrollment in theological education in the United States and Canada. RTS has become the leading evangelical seminary in the southeastern United States. ►Log College and Seminary Originally established as The North American Reformed Seminary in 2008, The Log College & Seminary seeks to continue the mission, vision, and values of the original Log College and expand its reach as the twenty-first century continuation of this historic institution. Completely free, completely online, and completely Reformed, LCS offers undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral degrees implementing the old Puritan apprenticeship model for ministry preparation. An ARTS affiliate institution, LCS affirms the Westminster Standards and is one of only a few seminaries to offer a program in noethetic counseling. ►Westminster Theological Seminary Westminster Theological Seminary prepares leaders for ministry, developing graduates with a depth of understanding of God's Word and a heartfelt desire to use that knowledge in God's service. A Westminster education starts with the Bible. Grounded in the Reformed tradition, Westminster teaches that the Christian religion is true, and that in-depth study of the Bible and its historical contexts will reveal this truth, building a bedrock foundation for Christian ministry. ►Covenant Theological Seminary At Covenant, our purpose is to train servants of the triune God. We seek to help you sharpen your mind, develop the skills entrusted to you, and be changed by the transforming grace of God. Covenant Seminary is the place to dig deep into the Scriptures and to prepare for the overflow of ministry that results from a grateful heart. With the Apostle Paul, we "pray that you being rooted and established in love may ... grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ" (Ephesians 3:17-18). We invite you to study with us and to come to know the Covenant Seminary community as a place to nurture relationships that will prepare you, by God's grace, to change the world. As a community of faculty, staff, and students, our goal is to see God's servants trained for a lifetime of ministry. ►City Seminary of Sacramento The goals of City Seminary of Sacramento are twofold; to provide a classical theological seminary education for ministerial candidates, and to offer continuing theological education for those already active in the ministry. ►Northwest Theological Seminary Northwest Theological Seminary is the culmination of a concerted effort to bring a new Reformed theological seminary to the Pacific Northwest. The specific emphases is biblical theology in the tradition of Geerhardus Vos; presuppositional apologetics in the tradition of Cornelius Van Til; and orthodox confessionalism in the classic Calvinistic tradition. ►Greenville Presbyterian Theological Seminary Greenville Presbyterian Theological Seminary is passionately committed to the authority of Scripture. Now in its 15th year, GPTS has maintained its identity as an Old School Presbyterian seminary. Recognizing that fewer men who graduate from the College or University are prepared for a classical seminary education, we have introduced our Propædeutic, or foundations, year. During this year, in addition to the Bible Survey courses, Introduction to Reformed Theology, and the beginning Greek and Hebrew courses, we teach Logic, Rhetoric, and the History of Philosophy. These courses enable men to profit more fully from the remainder of our curriculum. They also train our students to be more careful thinkers and articulate speakers. ►Knox Theological Seminary Knox has forged an unusually effective blend of strong academics and practical ministry to thoroughly prepare leaders of the 21st century. Our vision for ministry emphasizes the application of true, biblical Christianity to all aspects of our culture and our world. We equip you in a personal, mentoring environment to have a real impact in both the church and the world...except that they have jettisoned the Westminster Confession and are no longer truly Reformed. ►Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary was born in May of 1995, with classes officially commencing in August, 1995. Students of the Heritage Netherlands Reformed Congregations and the Free Reformed Churches attend for their theological training; students outside of these denominations are accepted on the basis of adherence to the Three Forms of Unity or the Westminster Standards, and meeting the basic admissions requirements. Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary is distinctive because of its Reformed, experiential emphasis and its academy model of education. Ministry in the church of Jesus Christ—whether it be preaching, teaching, counseling, or administration—must be theologically informed. Therefore, our seminary strives to fully equip students for a variety of forms of gospel ministry, always remembering that the Holy Spirit's union and blessing is requisite to make men "able ministers of the New Testament." ►Mid-America Reformed Seminary Mid-America's mission is to prepare pastors as faithful servants of the Word and sacrament in the heritage of Reformed and Presbyterian Churches. Mid-America's curriculum is calculated to assist in the intellectual and spiritual development of our students. We believe a thorough knowledge of, and submission to God's Word, together with a solid grounding in its essential doctrines, is requisite to a God-glorifying and fruitful ministry. ►Redeemer College At Redeemer, you will find that we are a very supportive community, dedicated to your academic excellence and spiritual growth. Choose to experience a university environment rooted in a Christian perspective, and committed to helping you develop your unique gifts and discover all that God created you to be. With 70 different majors and minors to choose from, a dynamic campus life, and many opportunities to serve in the community, you will be equipped with the education and experience you need to positively impact our world. ►Calvin Theological Seminary All education at Calvin Theological Seminary is grounded in Scripture and unified in a Reformed theological perspective. ►Covenant College We are a community committed to the Bible as the inerrant Word of God, and everything we do is grounded in our Reformed theology and worldview. ►Geneva College Geneva College provides an array of academic options and opportunities rooted in liberal arts and science. Professors with wide-ranging experience and expertise will expand your mind, challenging you to learn more about yourself and the world around you. Of course we offer strong academics and plenty of fun activities to enhance the classroom experience, but we never lose sight of our mission to provide Christ-centered education. Reformed Sites in other languages: In Spanish In Portuguese: In Vietnamese We are blessed as Christians today. That doesn't mean the church is perfect, or there are not issues we need to correct and reform. The Bible teaches us everything we need for "life and godliness" as the Apostle Peter instructs us. To understand what is required, we not only engage in hermeneutics and study of the Bible, or hear good sermons each Sunday, (Lord willing that we are sitting under good preaching), but we have today the ability to read the best Reformation materials that have ever been written or published. Technology allows us to condense material into tiny electronic bytes, and that ability has lead to the propagation of the best Reformed literature in the history of the church. At Puritan Publications, we are choosing to publish only the best Reformed Literature. We carefully transcribe these works from the original Old English, and then update them to reflect easier reading without losing the intention of the author. These are some of the best and most powerful biblical works ever produced in the history of the Christian church. We are truly blessed to have such materials at our fingertips.
